

BIOGENA moments - beauty bites

Melt-in-the-mouth functional beauty

Can functional beauty be enjoyable as well as successful? The new beauty bites from BIOGENA moments clearly say yes, especially yes to inner beauty. Behind the crispy, crunchy shell in stunning pink thanks to 100% natural beetroot juice powder, bite after bite an incomparably creamy, cloudy-white filling of elegant white coconut almond cream is revealed. Does this remind you of your next break on a white sandy beach under palm trees?

The beauty bites captivate with extravagance: they let our skin, hair and nails glow specifically from the inside out thanks to the decades of expertise of the largest scientific team in the industry. The secret of the innovative inner beauty snack experience lies in the unique blend of the beauty heroes biotin, vitamin A, E and zinc, as well as the vegan hyaluronic acid from Tremella fuciformis extract and the fatigue fighter pantothenic acid. When you look at the nutritional values of the little Hollywood-suspicious snack, no question remains unanswered: of course, no sugar is added, nor does it contain palm oil or gluten. Instead, it is rich in perfectly dosed valuable micronutrients with maximum yumminess.

Welcome to the "functional yumminess paradise", welcome to the fancy beauty bites.

Good to know:

We don't just want the best for you, but also for our bites - that's why we don't send them through the deep fryer, but instead let them bake in the oven until they're gently crispy and that's even CO₂-neutral.

- ∞ The functional beauty snack innovation of the year.
- ∞ Nice outside, inside even "nicer": a deluxe taste explosion - first crunchy, then creamy.
- ∞ BIOGENA Inside & maximum added value: with the beauty Held:innen biotin, vitamin A, E and zinc. Rounded off with vegan hyaluronic acid and pantothenic acid.
- ∞ Conscience-free enjoyment: 100% vegan, 100% palm oil-free, 100% gluten-free.
- ∞ NEOH Inside: zero sugar added & zero nonsense.
- ∞ More than that: good for you AND your body!
