

BIOGENA moments - good night bites

Small Bites - Big Dreams

Counting sheep was yesterday - falling asleep with pleasure is today! The new good night bites from BIOGENA moments should not be missing in the evening routine of smart connoisseurs. They combine enjoyment and function in an enchanting way - a seductively creamy-tender date-cashew filling, covered by a wafer-thin, crispy saffron wafer padding, refined with the unique micronutrient blend for relaxation and well-being. Start relaxing: you can enjoy and let go.

Our good night bites impress with their unconventional serenity: a small bite, filled with the know-how of the largest scientific team in the industry, takes you on a journey to relaxation and tranquility with maximum enjoyment. The secret lies in the perfectly balanced blend of vitamins B6, B12 and niacin, which ensure pure relaxation, as well as the always chilling mineral magnesium, optimally supplemented with the extract of the ashwagandha root, known as the sleeping berry.

The ingredients of the small bites for big dreams also speak for serenity: Of course, no conventional sugar is added. The ingenious sugar replacement formula ENS016 from NEOH and date powder sweetens dreams. These are dried, finely ground dates - without any additives. We have also avoided palm oil or gluten. But not on perfectly dosed, valuable micronutrients with maximum yumminess.

Welcome to functional yumminess paradise, welcome to fancy good night bites.

Good to know:

We not only want the best for you, but also for our bites. That's why we don't send them through the deep fryer, but instead let them bake in the oven until they're gently crispy - and that's even CO2-neutral.

- ∞ Great on the outside, great on the inside: deluxe taste explosion – first crunchy, then creamy
- ∞ BIOGENA Inside & maximum added value: with the good night heroes vitamin B6 and B12, niacin and magnesium, refined with ashwagandha root extract
- ∞ Conscience-free enjoyment: 100% vegan, 100% palm oil-free, 100% gluten-free
- ∞ NEOH Inside: zero sugar added & zero nonsense
- ∞ More than that: Good for you AND your body
