

MoFerrin® liquid Herbal Elixier

Herbal iron with high bioavailability and good tolerability

The vegetable iron from Biogena is finally available as juice in liquid form. Due to the very good absorption and the good compatibility, it is particularly suitable for optimizing daily iron intake. Because iron is not only relevant for blood formation and oxygen transport, but also contributes to the reduction of fatigue and tiredness. Thanks to its low daily dosage, MoFerrin® liquid is also particularly suitable for children and adolescents whose needs are lower than those of adults. The combination of different organic juice juices also makes MoFerrin® liquid a guaranteed taste experience!
